“ The thing im going to miss the most is easter. Definitley easter. You came over every easter and we played crack the egg game. I always peeled crawfish for you so you didnt have to mess up your little fingers. I always looked forward to you coming the night before. Now, i think about you more than before. It hasnt sunk in yet. I thought i would hold up better through this but im trying harder every day! Prayers to my dad, all my uncles & my grandparents! We all love you so much. Your not here anymore but ill always be proud to call you my great grandmother!! Its almost your birthday and i hope you have the best possible time up there for your 91st birthday!!

“ I hope you and Papa Percy are having a great time and watching over us. I miss you so much and I still have not moved on from the funeral and think about you everyday. Everytime i am thinking about you I cry and I can not help it to wish that you were here and it makes me angry that you couldnt stay longer. I am sorry that i miss your birthday because i never knew about it . I have so many songs that remind of you and I cry when i hear them. I just want you to come back but you are back in my heart but it doesnt feel the same and i cant help but cry and i remeber when i came back to school i almost cried in front of my class. I was the one that everyone was watching out for at the funeral because i didnt want to walk out the funeral hooome because i couldnt leave you and i was depressed more than anything and people were kind of worried about me but i was taking care of myself. When i talk to you you listen and i know that you are there for me to support me and get through it and i am crying as i write this and im fine it is just that i miss you so much and i wish that you and papa percy were here. It could be on the softball field, at dads, anywheres where i could just ump into your arms and start crying and never let go. And i jdut realized we never did let go. I love you mawmaw and we will never let go and I will see you when its time. i love you.

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are never alone. Turn to the Holy Scriptures for guidance and to help soothe your heart. Psalms 34:18 assures us that God is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. Please accept my deepest sympathies.

“ One of the very first times I visited with Anna Lou at Kevin & Martha's, we were discussing discipline on children, she said putting a child on their knees meant prayer. Get to the point and whip their little butts- to put it mildly & that's it. Do what it takes.

You are all in our thoughts & prayers, Nelson & Phyllis Tauzin
